Suzanne was the closest thing I had to a caring motherly figure, who not only looked out for me and took great care of me. She also taught me to be strong and aware. Through life any time I wasn't being the best or using my head I could just hear her say "Kayla Michelle" in such a gentle, loving, strict voice. She never had to say more than that for me to turn my brain on and use my head. I love her so much and miss her all the time. She taught me so much and I carry here near and dear to my heart always. ❤️

To the Harris Family, We are so sorry for you loss. Suzanne was a beautiful woman with a big heart full of love that she so easily gave. We will miss the Auntie Suzanne stories and the "fashion show" that Matthew and Brooklyn would share with us after each visit she had with them. Macaroni and Cheese will never be the same as Suzanne made the best! Clyde and Shirley our hearts are HEAVY for you, Russell and Marcel we love you both very much. You are all in our thoughts & prayers. Matt & Lorrie Grim - Bellingham, WA ~ Lorrie Grim, Bellingham, Washington##imported-begin##Lorrie Grim##imported-end##
