Neddy was an exceptional person: hard-working, generous, kind, and respectful. There are no words to convey my deep sadness at his passing. He brought lightness and humor to the workplace and he will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Gracie Tangalan##imported-end##

We were so sad to hear of Neddy's sudden death. We loved working with him at Providence, especially Robert as part of the Security gang back in the mid to late 1990s. Neddy was that very rare person that everyone could call a friend. He was one sweet man and I'm so sorry you have to continue on without him.##imported-begin##Karen Therese and Robert Field##imported-end##

I am very saddened to hear about Neddy's passing. I have very fond memories of working with Neddy at Providence Seattle Medical Center and that "gang" included Nani and everyone else in Security and the Switchboard. With heartfelt condolences, you are in my thoughts##imported-begin##Barb Newell##imported-end##
