You will not know who I am. My great grandmother Elizabeth Beal lived right next door to your parents on Trafton years ago. When I came over I would play with one of the daughters. I just remember your parents being very kind. Grandma Beal thought very kindly of your parents and always had nice things to say. When she died in 1963 the house was sold and we did not return I just wanted your family to know that you are in our thoughts at this time in your life.###imported-begin###Karen Rushton###imported-end###
