Geraldine May Smathers

MAY 21, 1937 - MAR 22, 2012

Geri May Smathers
May 21, 1937- March 22, 2012

A loving mother and grandmother to her son Terry and his wife Annette, and her three grandchildren, Tori, Allie and Erinn.

She loved to go shopping with her grandchildren and her sisters. She also loved working in her yard and spending time with her family and friends.

She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Services will be held at 1:00 PM on Tuesday, March 27, 2012 in the Mountain View Valley Chapel.

Arrangements by Mountain View Funeral Home. Please sign the online guestbook at www.mountainviewtacoma.com.

I'm so sorry to hear the loss of this wonderful lady. Geri was such a live wire and made coming to work each and every day so very enjoyable. She could always make me laugh. I will miss her greatly and send my deepest condolences to her loved ones.##imported-begin##Kathryn Van Kekerix##imported-end##

My sympathies to Geri's family. She is gone too soon. She spoke often of her son, his wife and grandchildren...she loved you all so much. I remember going to dinner with her and Wilma one night on the Tacoma waterfront and how much fun we had. May God bless and keep you and may your memories of Geri keep you warm.##imported-begin##Sue Keawe##imported-end##

My heart goes out to those who call her Mom, Grandma, Mother-in-law, sister, and friend. May her sprit forever be with you and her love continue warm you. I am grateful that all were able to experience such a wonderful soul. The following poem is an old Makah Indian poem that has been used with my family who have passed on.... Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glint on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumns rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there. I did not die.##imported-begin##Debbie Nelson##imported-end##

Terry, My heartfelt condolences to you, Annette and the girls. I'm so sorry that I didn't get to see Geri more recently, but I'll always have such good memories of all the times we shared and fun we had. My life was enriched by the 28 years that I've known Geri and she will always be in my heart. She loved you and all her family and I know the girls were everything to her. So sorry that she's gone now, but I'm thankful she left us all so many memories. I can't say enough about her, please know that. Love Always, Wilma##imported-begin##Wilma M. Reilly##imported-end##

Terry, Annette and girl's- I'm so sorry for your loss. Your mom (grandma) was such a great lady and will truly be missed! Geri was always my favorite aunt and I loved her very much. I have so many great childhood memories of being at her house and from living right around the corner from her. I hope you know how much we all loved her. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. - Tasha##imported-begin##Tasha Patterson##imported-end##
