I loved her and I didn't appreciate her nearly enough...My God, she was a cute child and full of fire at an early age. I'll miss my Cissy forever...##imported-begin##Michael Dean##imported-end##

I will miss my friend and coworker. When I came through the service area, she always made time to ask Me....how are things going Bud? She made people smile, Laugh & forget only for a few seconds that dayÃ¢â,â,¸s turmoil! May the Peace, Love of the Lord Jesus be with you always my friend!##imported-begin##Archie Andrews##imported-end##

I remember Les as a free spirit who was more family than babysitter. She taught me to pick the pepperoni off my pizza (much to my parents' chagrin). So incredibly sad to hear of her passing. The world is definitely less because she is gone. Much love to the rest of the family.##imported-begin##Jenny Buehler (Smith)##imported-end##

Leslie was a former co-worker, but more importantly she was my good friend. I admired her laughter and ease of manner and the special times we shared together. They were too few. But I will always remember a woman I admired.##imported-begin##Kathryn Pennington##imported-end##
