Uncle Al, You are like that unbelievable childhood rootbeer that you made...never to be replaced, outdone or duplicated...a Man's man who I danced with through my life and the last time, you looked down at me with a twinkle in those blue eyes and said " I see...you are still leading"...I laughed...you were always there when I needed a extra bit of help, and I still have that battery terminal thing-a -ma jig...I will miss your humor and though you were a man of few words...when you spoke I listened...I am sorry for my loss and for all your families loss but you left a wonderful family legacy ...may they all be as blessed as I was having you in my life...I love you and will see ya on the other side and we will sit and ponder your pond...##imported-begin##Caroline##imported-end##
