Leon Robert Harshman

DEC 28, 1960 - JAN 21, 2013

Leon Robert Harshman was born December 28, 1960 to Annette and Robert Harshman, in Wilmington, North Carolina.

Leon went to Mt. Tahoma High School in Tacoma, Washington. In his senior year, he joined the United States Army. After honorably serving his country, Leon completed an apprenticeship with the Painters Union and became a Journeyman Painter.

Leon loved nature and helping anyone he could help. He loved bringing people together. He loved working, science, reading, writing, working out and working on any kind of vehicle. Leon had a sweet tooth and loved any kind of pastry, especially anything with strawberry. He also loved to have his tea along with his sweets.

Leon is survived by his wife Sonya D. Harshman, step-daughter, Amy (Roger) Irwin, daughter, Amanda Gaynor, step-son, Timothy Gaynor, and three granddaughters, Alexandria, Ana and Amelia Irwin. He is also survived by his brother, Eugene Harshman, sister, Joanne (John) Lang, and nieces, Diana Lang and Jessica Harshman Soloman. He was preceded in death by his Mother and Father and brothers, Michael Harshman and David Harshman.

Leon had a favorite saying, "Can't we all just get along?"

Arrangements by Mountain View Funeral Home.

I am free
Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play
And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wants me now... He set me free.
