

Chad Austin

March 4, 1997 - June 9, 2019

Chad Patrick Austin left this world on June 9th 2019 to be with our Lord and his beloved brother Zach, in Heaven.

Chad had a light about him which had the ability to turn a bad day around. No matter how many hardships he faced he always held his head high. He was an amazing Son, Brother, and Friend, and he cared so deeply for the people he loved. Chad's light especially shown when he was with his Niece and Nephews. He was and always will be the best Uncle and role model.

If you are one of the many people that were blessed enough to know Chad and his contagious smile, please join us to celebrate his life. As the family and friends who survived by Chad we find comfort knowing Chad and Zach are up in Heaven, living it up together.

“ I had the privilege of being Chad's fourth grade teacher at Concordia just a "few years back"!! The smile on this photo here is the smile I recall seeing back then. Although many years have passed by, each student leaves a mark on a teacher's life in some way. We don't understand the "whys" in life, but we serve a God who promises to be with us through it all. So today, as Chad's life is celebrated, and in the days to come, my prayer is that you'll all find strength, comfort, and peace in the Hope of the Resurrection. May God hold you close in the palm of His Hand always. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Chad was my lab partner for 6 months in A&P. I am heartbroken. He was so kind and could light up a room with his smile. I always told him he should be a doctor because of how smart he was. I feel so lucky I got a chance to know him. Chad you will be so missed.

“ I am a patient at Ati, and although Chad wasn't my therapist, he was always bouncing around with a smile on his face! Joking around about my therapy and me cleaning his walls.. he always made my bad day better, and always made me smile! I'll miss his wonderful attitude and outlook on life (it's all gravy baby) He is a shining star that will never fade! Ty for making my tough days better, with you just being in the room. You are an infectious light who made such a difference in many lives. My prayers for Chad's family and friends, and his ATI family as well! My deepest condolences. You will be missed Chad, greatly!!

“ Chad and I had anatomy class at pierce college and he amazed our teacher and everyone in the class with how hard he worked and what a diligent student he was. We would always collaborate and go over how we thought our tests went. Chad was going places you just knew. Rest In Peace sweetheart happy to be your friend. Graduation is the same day as the service and I'm dedicating mine to you and my father.
