“ Hello Cynthia,

I know you can see me, and I miss seeing you at Lowes. I knew when I first met you, we would become fast friends and we did. Working with you was such a joy! Your work ethic is to be had by all. You are one in a million. I think about you daily and miss seeing you walk through the doors in the early morning hours at Lowes. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers as they go through the grieving process. I know, sometime soon, they will be able to talk about the memories of you with laughter rather than tears. You can be proud of your family as they honored you well. I know you are where you want to be and are no longer in pain. I will remember you with joy and laughter. And guess what, you no longer have to wear the face mask!!!

Your friend at Lowes,

“ Once upon a time these folks were “singles” at First Covenant Church. Today we gathered to say farewell to our dear friend Cindy! We promised today, Cindy, to not meet at another Memorial Service before spending some time together! We know you will be there with us,

“ Oh Cindy! I am so sorry to hear of your passing! Yet, I am certain where you are! I am certain you are walking the streets of gold with your Savior Jesus! Thank you for always being such a sweet bright light in my world and a fun-loving friend. To Steve, you did such an amazing job today. The love you showed in your words and tears was so moving. Bless you are you grieve and as Jesus draws near to you to comfort you and give you peace.
With love, Karen

“ So sorry Steve and Ken. Your sister was such a delight to know. She had such a kind spirit and talked so highly of her family. I will miss running into here around town. We always spent time sharing the times we ran into each other.
May God comfort you during this time.

“ Cynthia always had a smile on her face everyday I saw her. I worked with her at Lowe's. She made everyone feel welcomed. She had a loving soul. She will be greatly missed.

“ My remembrances of Cindy warm my heart: her beautiful smile, her kindness and her willingness to have fun on our many get togethers of the First Cov singles group - many years ago! I am so thankful she befriended me when I came to our church. Our family sends our love to yours at her passing - and we focus on the hope of seeing our friend in heaven. God Bless You - Love, Marilee, Jim and Joel Anderson
