“ So sad that you left the world this way. Even worse is that Emily followed in your footsteps. But the tragedy is the legacy you leave behind for your son... He is a miracle and he is loved.

“ May the Peace of Christ be with +John's Family and Friends.
I would like to share a moment of blessing among the friends and family of John that happened in the Garden Chapel Memorial Service, just after I read a passage from the Gospel of John (14.1-6; 6.37-40)
One of the little children, a nephew of +John, called out “I see you!” from the seating to the side of the Garden Chapel. Taking that as a theme for faith and friendship and family, we journey in life to be able to say to one another “I see the deepest you, your true soul, your real identity - no matter what!
And that is the promise the Lord makes to each of us, and the promise that He now fulfills to John --- and He does that through us, through our prayers, our care-giving, our being together and holding on.
May God bless you in your love for one another.

“ John was the baby of our family. We will always love him and miss him and our family will always have a hole in it where he should be.
Emily and James you will always be a part of our family. We love you both.
