“ My Grandpa, Ken Dunaway died on April 24, 2020 out in Washington State. He was one fun grandpa who was into the Nautical stuff with a yacht for overnight trips throughout Washington State from Puget Sound to Seattle and Tacoma plus Salmon Island and the Jetty Island in Everett, Washington with sinking sands and Long Beaches for fun times with aunts uncles and cousins. He traveled the country with a big RV and we all went to Vancouver British Columbia in the RV on one trip with grandma Dunaway. He knew his tools through woodworking since he had a small workshop in his garage. He knew his Ivy League cars at Dunaway's Auto Body.
