“ My uncle mark was a very kind and simple man. When growing up I remember always so excited when my grandma would tell me he was coming to visit he would always greet me with his Donald Duck voice which I loved so much I was always mind blown that he sounded just like Donald Duck. He always had a smile on his face. He was one of a kind. He will be greatly missed. Love you uncle Mark Rest In Peace

“ Mark was a friend and co-worker of mine.
I worked with Mark for the equivalent of appx 3 years.
Mark and I enjoyed working together during those years. We kept in touch for the last few years talking on the phone just about weekly.
He always had funny stories to share and past events in life that explained a lot of who he was.
I remember one morning I went in to work and I was like an hour late. I went over to my machine to quickly get started. I swiped my finger across the screen to wake it up. After trying three times, I realized that it wasn't turned on. I turned it on and looked around to see if anyone saw my struggles. Yup, someone did, Mark. He was laughing so hard. I just started laughing too. We must have brought that one up a few times.
So many things we did to throw one another "under the bus" and laugh about it.
I'm miss Mark. He was a good man. He was a talented man. And, he was a good friend.
I miss you. Thank you for the laughs and the good times.
Rest in peace my friend.
