

Robert Michael Beaumont

March 25, 1944 - October 9, 2017

Robert Michael Beaumont, age 73, passed away on October 9, 2017, after a three-year battle with ALS.

Bob has four children, seven grandchildren, and three great grandchildren.

Bob was born on March 25, 1944, in Hollywood, California. His family shortly after moved up to Ballard, Washington, where he grew up. He grew up in Ballard and graduated from Ballard High School. He has been in the film industry for more than 50 years. He loved his job and never called it work. He made the set a fun place to be and was a joy to be around. He was joking around, being sarcastic, or pulling pranks all the time. He was living on Camano Island with family when he passed.

Bob was a great family man and a loving father. He was married to Barbara for over 23 years.

Bob was a social, active man who was enjoyed golf for the majority of his life. He enjoyed watching the Mariners and the Seahawks, even though he called them the Chicken Hawks. His family and friends will always remember him as a funny and caring person.

A funeral is scheduled for October 22, 2017, at Mountain View Funeral Home with a reception to follow in the Willow Room. Pastor Larry Redelsperger will officiate. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Robert's life. The family would like to thank everyone for their generosity, support, and kind words. Contact Jill Johnson for any other information at 425-210-9695 or 608 Michael Way, Camano Island, WA 98282.

When arriving to funeral home, please gather in the main office. We will then process together to the graveside.

“ Just wanted to say: What a great guy. So much fun we had with this man while playing golf at Snohomish. One of the funniest thing I can remember was while driving on the freeway I hear this horn blowing and there was Bob right along side of me with a great big clown nose on his face You will be missed Bob.
