“ Tough news to hear this week. Ron was a great man and a good influence on me as a young man. Ron gave me the opportunity to work with him and his crew a couple decades ago. He taught me good strong work ethic, dependability, honesty, and a diversity of construction techniques and practices while he led by example. I will carry fond memories of Ron and he will always hold a special place in my heart. Sorry for your loss Zahra and Veeda.
